New Mexico Attorney General Gary King Endorses Stephen Easley

King: Easley best-suited "to fill the seat I once held"

Eldorado at Santa Fe, NM – Gary King, the current Attorney General of New Mexico, has officially endorsed Democratic candidate Stephen Easley in his bid for State House District 50. King previously served residents of the same house district for 14 years, from 1985 to 1999.

"I have known Stephen Easley personally for ten years. I worked with him for seven of those years while he served at the highest levels of state government," King said. "As a State Representative, I am confident that he will be compassionate, effective, and willing to listen to his constituents. I am proud to give him my full endorsement to fill the seat I once held."

"The support of Attorney General King means a lot to me," Easley said. "I'm honored and humbled to have him stand with me as I hope to continue the great legacy of strong leadership that has served House District 50 for decades."

Easley has gained an outstanding list of organizations and supporters that endorse him, including:

- Ben Luján, Sr. (NM HD-46), Speaker of the State House of Representatives
- Brian Colón, Former Democratic Party of New Mexico Chairman
- National Education Association New Mexico
- American Federation of Teachers New Mexico
- American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees
- New Mexico Federation of Labor AFL-CIO
- Communication Workers of America New Mexico
- United Association of Plumbers and Pipefitters Local 412
- Animal Protection Voters PAC of New Mexico
- Conservation Voters of New Mexico
- Rio Grande Chapter of the Sierra Club
- Planned Parenthood New Mexico Action Fund
- Steve Brockett, Former Mayor of Alamogordo, NM
- Dr. Bruce J. Fisch, UNM Health Sciences Professor
- Brad Hill, Mayor of Edgewood, NM
- Kathy Holian and Dr. Liz Stefanics, Santa Fe County Commissioners.

The general election will be held on Tuesday, November 6.
